*Grade levels are a helpful guideline. Contact the class instructor with questions about age appropriateness of class content. Please note that these classes are taught by volunteer moms who contribute their time, talent and resources to mentor our children. These classes are not intended to be perfect – they ARE meant to be an opportunity for your children to experience new skills and ideas, and to make new friends. Due to weather, family illness or unexpected circumstances, a teacher may have to miss a class. If possible a substitute will be found, but classes might have to be combined with a gym class or other overflow class in the event that a teacher is absent. If you have questions about the class content or expected instruction, or requested fee or supplies, please contact the teacher before you enroll.
